Dear Mr. Schoning:

We are pleased to confirm your visit to CIA Headquarters, where the Director of Central Intelligence, William J. Casey, will meet with you and the Coro Foundation of Southern California. His biography is enclosed, along with a map and directions to the Central Intelligence Agency for your visit on Wednesday, 28 April, from 2:00-4:00 p.m. I hope you will plan to arrive at about 1:45 p.m. to allow time for in-processing.

The Director has agreed to address you and to respond to your questions. He will be followed by a Soviet expert addressing the subject of the Soviet threat, and a representative from personnel who will discuss career opportunities available at the Agency.

I am expecting to receive the list of attendees in the mail shortly. As I have already mentioned to you, all attendees must be U.S. citizens; the Agency does not admit foreign nationals.

Please let me know if any handicapped persons will attend so that I can make special arrangements to assist them. Some form of identification must be shown to the receptionist upon entering the building. I will notify Security that you will be arriving in approximately four cars.

The Agency allows neither hazardous equipment--such as weapons or explosives--nor cameras, recording devices, or radio transmitters to be brought into the building.
